

San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval
SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT/OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT
ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT

Job Opening ID (JOID): 013151

RANK: Assistant or Associate Professor. (Tenure-Track)
One-year visiting professor appointments will also be considered.

QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants should have a strong theoretical foundation in Supply Chain Management/Operations Management. Interest and experiential background in several of the following areas is required: global operations, quality management, and materials management. Awareness of and sensitivity to the educational needs of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, or comparable work experience is also required. The ideal applicant would be a proficient teacher and researcher seeking a collaborative environment. The candidate must be able to teach in a multicultural classroom environment. Evidence of prior teaching excellence is desirable. Strong communications ability, collegiality, and interpersonal skills are essential. Experience working with industry professionals would be helpful. The candidate should have a doctorate or, if ABD, be able to complete the degree within 12 months of employment. Candidates for senior rank must demonstrate a record of quality research, have broad teaching experience and must be willing to assume a leadership role in the field.

In evaluating applications, strong preference will be given to candidates who:

- Possess an appropriate doctorate from an accredited university. If ABD, completion of the doctorate is a requirement for continued employment and a prerequisite for promotion and tenure.
- Demonstrate a record of teaching excellence.
- Have a record of professional achievements and research leading to publications and scholarly papers.
- Have shown an ability to work as part of a team.
- Have shown an ability to work as part of a team, and have excellent communication, collegiality, and interpersonal skills.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Address the needs of a student population of great diversity in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation through course materials, teaching strategies, and student advisement.

ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENT: Undergraduate as well as graduate teaching assignments are expected. While the normal teaching load is 12 semester hours, it is common for individual faculty to teach fewer hours when engaged in approved research projects or certain other assigned University activities. Professional achievements and research leading to publications and scholarly papers are required. Knowledge of computer applications is also highly desirable.

CONSULTING AND APPLIED RESEARCH: Located within the heart of the "Silicon Valley" and within an hour's drive of San Francisco, a major world trade and financial center, opportunities are available for consulting and applied, field-based research.

THE DEPARTMENT: The Organization and Management Department serves approximately 1,600 undergraduates who have declared Management, International Business or Human Resource Management as a major.

THE COLLEGE OF BUSINESS: The College of Business has an enrollment of about 5,500 students in nine undergraduate concentrations and about 500 students in our graduate programs. Both the undergraduate and graduate programs are accredited by the AACSB International (the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business).

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

STARTING DATE: August 21, 2008

ELIGIBILITY: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES : For full consideration send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy and research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by December 1, 2007 to:

San José State University is California's oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 945,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California's most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

SJSU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to nondiscrimination on the bases of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender status, marital status, pregnancy, age, disability, or covered veteran status consistent with applicable federal and state laws. This policy applies to all SJSU students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose.
